

Name: _____

Date: _____

March Puzzle

Across

6. Material that is being printed on.

7. The alignment and precision placement of colors, images, and other impressions on paper during the printing process.

9. An image produced from etching a plate through an intaglio process and producing a print from it.

11. irregular quality in paper that causes poor runability

13. an image on paper

14. Our envelopes are typically packed in these.

16. Binder dividers, used for document organization, filing and record keeping.

17. Who has fast and friendly service in the paper industry?

18. a printing process that produces a clear picture with dots

20. A property of paper referring to the degree to which a paper can maintain its surface and structural integrity under prolonged rubbing, scratching, and scuffing.

Down

1. Quality of a substrate made to adhere with out adhesive

2. minimal or not translucency

3. They are used to transfer images and text onto the surface you want to print on

4. The most stable water to use in the printing process.

5. A copy of another work of art, such as a painting, drawing, or original print

8. A stretched polyester covering 3 hole punched paper

10. Printed retail signs that are the voice of your product

12. Printing that goes beyond the edge of where the sheet will be trimmed.

15. a wavy defect in paper

19. printing process using etching